

2021 AIA Baltimore & Baltimore Architecture Foundation Lecture Series

Building Love

Invitation for Entries

INTRODUCTION:

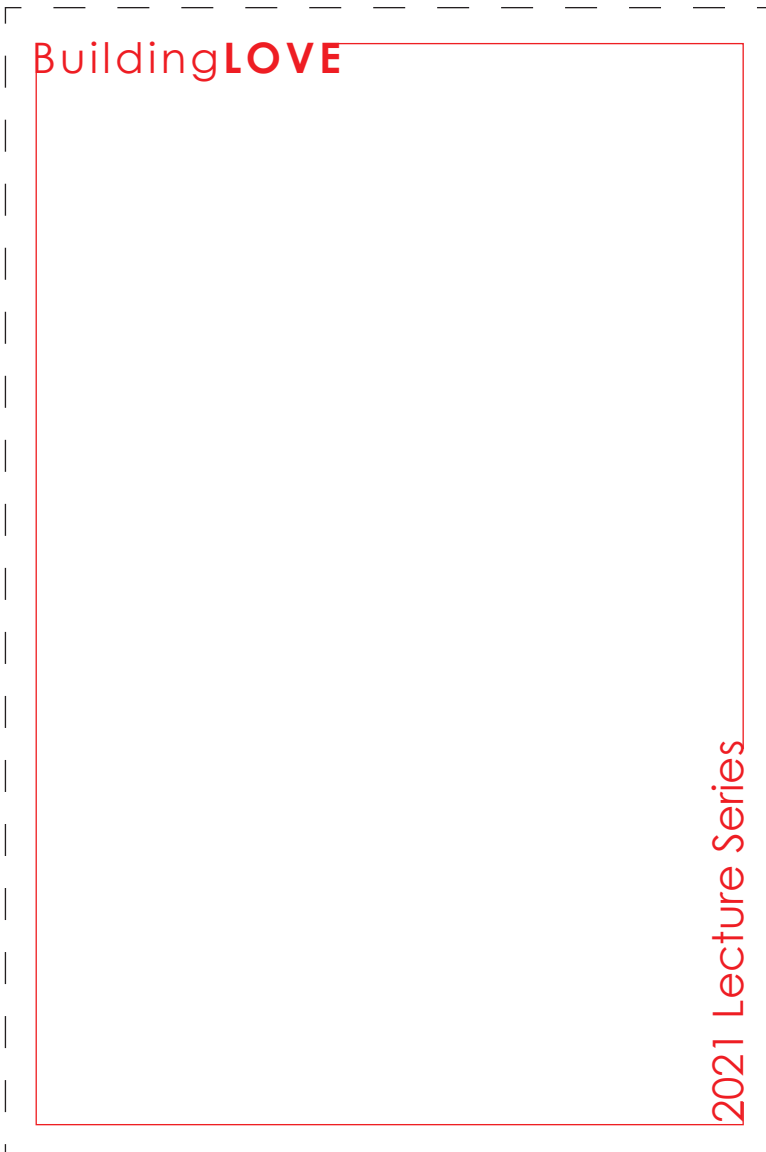

As the 6th oldest chapter of the American Institute of Architects, AIA Baltimore celebrates its 150th birthday in 2021. In recognition of this milestone, the AIA Baltimore and BAF Lecture Series Committee announce an invitation to submit a token of your love for Baltimore architecture.

The goals of Building Love are to reflect on the built environment and values manifested in a building or space and to create a discourse among design professions and the public about qualities that make a building or space successful.

This call for entries is free and open to the public, but limited to one entry per person.

CHALLENGE:

Expanding on the Baltimore Architecture Foundation's open call for Love Letters, individuals are invited to create one letter, poem, sketch or other creation of their favorite building or place in Baltimore in the format of a 4x6 postcard that will then be digitally collected. The submission should be original work and produced specifically for this. The postcard format below should be printed and cut out, with the submission created in the space it provides. The submission should describe the subject and why it is beloved in a visual or written way.

Once ready, post your submission on Instagram with the hashtag:

#AIBalt150BuildingLove

This is where the entries will be collected and shared for all to browse and consider.

By providing a submission, entrants grant to the organizer an unrestricted, worldwide, irrevocable, and royalty-free license (but not the obligation) to use submitted work as follows: publicly display by any means and in any media in present and future, copy, modify, translate and/or adapt, archive, and distribute in relation to the "Building Love" program and program publicity purposes without any further notice or remuneration to the entrant. Only one submission per individual is allowed. Names and/or firm logos shall not be present on submitted images or texts.

The AIA Baltimore and Baltimore Architecture Foundation 2021 Lecture Series is titled Manifestation. Architecture is a manifestation of culture. On the occasion of AIA Baltimore's 150th anniversary, the 2021 Lecture Series will explore how the built environment reflects and influences culture in Baltimore and Beyond.
